To-morrow, being the end of Holy Week and Easter Sunday, special services appropriate to the occasion will be held in the churches. Easter has been considered by the Christian Church in all ages as the great day, the chief of all festivals, celebrating as it does the fundamental doctrine of Christ's resurrection from the dead.

Recently the lot on the S.W. corner of King and Nuuanu streets, with the two-story wooden store upon it—for years in the occupancy of Ah Lee, dry goods dealer—changed hands, the price being $3,700. The purchaser then sold again for the sum of $4,400. The premises are now under lease to Hart Bros., the well-known restaurant firm, who are fitting them for a billiard saloon.
